FINANCE + DELIVERY AVAILABLE PLEASE ASK. Just arrived from Japan and now dvla registered (LX13 FPL) is this 2013 Volkswagen Touran SE 1.4 TSi petrol with the DSG automatic gearbox, Japanese auction grade 4.5B !, 7 seater finished in metallic black and only covered a genuine 39,000 miles with Jevic mileage verification, Spare remote key, Air conditioning/climate control, Cruise control, Electric foldaway mirrors, Rear privacy glass, ISOFIX for child seats, Traction control, Automatic headlight, Alloy Wheels, So you're probably thinking why buy a Vw from Japan ? Simple !... Most Vw's in the uk are diesel engines which are now becoming more and more unpopular and people are seeking out petrol alternatives but these are very rare in the uk and the few that have spent their life here in the uk are in poor condition compared to Japanese imports!, The Japanese Vw's are the same as the uk version as they were all manufactured in Europe but were just sent to different countries when new..
